

Neighborhood Advisory Group Meeting
Martin Luther King Library, room 225
February 20, 2008

6:38pm- Agenda Item I-Welcome and Chair's Remarks

- Councilman Liccardo reviewed upcoming events. Great American Litter pick-up- April 12, see Khanh. SJSU Day of Service-April 25, need ideas of where students can assist. Livestrong/Lance Armstrong event- July 13.
- Review of progress on extended community center hours and funding.
- Don Gagliardi welcomed everyone, self introductions of those present

6:50m- Agenda Item II- Working Group Reports/Updates

- Scott Owens reviewed handout for Traffic Calming and Street Maintenance, priorities, criteria, DOT concerns
- Beth SafranMukai thanks Scott for his "great work and leadership" on traffic subgroup
- Councilman Liccardo acknowledged concerns working with DOT and offered Councilman Oliverio's task force is working on policy roadblocks
- Joan RivasCosby reviewed survey results for Youth Activities and Gang Abatement. Kids felt safe in neighborhood while acknowledging gang activity. Many were interested in performing arts, sports and career info.
- Joan thanked Justin for assisting in collating survey results
- Matt Cano (Parks Dept) reviewed list of capital improvements for D3 parks
- Beth reminded folks that the top 10 lists for each SNI are online
- Don Gagliardi (Parks/CIP Maintenance Group) reminded folks that the parks list is fluid, as items such as Ryland Pool are addressed they are removed and other projects move up on the list.

7:55 pm- Agenda Item III- Neighborhood Commission Update

- Beth Safran-Mukai explained upcoming opportunity for neighborhood leaders to apply to be on commission. Application process will be done through City much like other commissions.
- This will be a 2 yr. pilot program and provides a great opportunity to share resources throughout San Jose neighborhoods.
- May 21st NAG meeting will be devoted to commission nominations.

8:00 pm- Agenda Item IV- Review of Action Items/Conclusion

- Don reminds folks to check BigTent for upcoming dates and info.

8:02 pm- Meeting Adjourned

Next meeting date: Weds. March 19, 6:30-8:00 pm City Hall Wing, rm118-119

